Would you like to be involved in the decision-making in the village?

The Parish Council currently has a vacancy for the co-option of a Parish Councillor.

If you are interested and want to find out more, speak to one of the Councillors, contact the Clerk, or come along to the Parish Council meeting on Wednesday 15 November.

No experience is necessary and training is available.

Any person wishing to serve as a Councillor should write to the Council at the above address (either by post or email) with a CV and their reasons for becoming a Parish Councillor by Friday 10 November.

The Parish Council will consider applications at the meeting on Wednesday 15 November.

To qualify, a person must be a British subject, over 18 years old and an elector; must reside within Caversfield or within three miles of it, or occupy as owner or tenant any land or premises therein, or have their principal or only place of work there, and must not be disqualified from holding office as a Councillor (further details available from the Clerk).
